Direction to take this:

- Use the Mockup B's Background and layout, but implement Sapia like paper backgrounds behind the text for readability.
- Mobile design works great, just changing the navigation buttons and having a global navigation window will make it perfect.

Small changes:

- Have the page title colors be black for readability on the blue background
- White paper backgrounds behind type for readability
- Possible change of logo to the more modern design